

Immediate Release
August 29, 2014

Media Contacts:

Jeremy Boriack (559) 600-9243

Jonathan Waltmire (559) 600-6274

WHAT: Fresno County Public Library Literacy Services Center Celebrates Literacy Awareness Month and 30 Years of Service by Opening Four New Literacy Services Centers.

WHEN: Saturday, September 6, 2014, 12:00 pm at the Tranquillity Branch Library, 25561 Williams St. Tranquillity, CA 93668.
Thursday, September 18, 2014, 5:30 pm at the Mendota Branch Library, 1246 Belmont Ave. Mendota, CA 93640.
Tuesday, September 23, 2014, 6:00 pm at the Sanger Branch Library, 1812 Seventh St. Sanger, CA 93657.
Thursday, September, 25, 2014, 5:30 pm at the Orange Cove Branch Library, 815 Park Blvd. Orange Cove, CA 93646.

DETAILS: Fresno County Public Library (FCPL) is pleased to celebrate Literacy Awareness Month by holding open houses at every library and unveiling four (4) new Literacy Services Centers at the Tranquillity, Mendota, Sanger, and Orange Cove libraries.

“Being able to read and do basic math opens the doors to so many possibilities. A literate society is one that will always succeed” said Laurel Prysiazny, Fresno County Librarian. FCPL’s Literacy Services Center offers free literacy services for individuals and families, which is now expanded to four more communities in Fresno County. All are invited to join in the festivities.

###