Fig Garden Branch Library Closed for Remodel

After over twenty-five years in the current space, the Fresno County Public Library's Fig Garden Branch (Fig Garden Library) is getting an update. The Fig Garden Library is expanding into the storefront next door and is also being remodeled. The Library will be closed while construction is taking place.

Community members can stay up to date on the progress of the Fig Garden Library remodel project by visiting the Fresno County Public Library on Facebook and Instagram.

The Fig Garden Library is currently offering curbside services at a temporary site located in the same shopping center, at the storefront previously occupied by FatBoys Restaurant at 3045 W Bullard Ave (SW corner of Bullard and Marks). Patrons can pick up holds, print documents, and make copies at this location.

Patrons are also welcome to visit the nearby Gillis and Teague libraries for additional services. The Fig Garden Library is expected to be closed until early 2022.
