Central Library Closed Due to Construction

Fresno County Public Library (FCPL) has closed the Central Library today due to construction of the parking lot. The Library will re-open to the public tomorrow, Wednesday, July 27.

The resurfacing of the parking lot has caused a strong odor originating from the tar used during the resurfacing process. The odor may cause some irritation for individuals who have health issues, allergies or sensitivity to strong odor.

The closure of the Central Library has no effect on holds or materials due. No fines or late fees will be charged due to the closure for today. All other branches are open for business as usual.

For more information about this closure, Library programs, services, and specific branch hours, please go to www.fresnolibrary.org or call the Library at (559) 600 – READ (7323).
