Fresno County Public Library Offers Kanopy Free Video Streaming Service

The popular on-demand film streaming service Kanopy is now available for free for Fresno County residents. Library card holders can access Kanopy and sign up to start streaming films on instantly by visiting www.fresnolibrary.org. Films can be streamed from any computer, television, mobile device or platform by downloading the Kanopy app for iOS, Android, AppleTV, Chromecast or Roku.

Offering what the New York Times calls “a garden of cinematic delights,” Kanopy showcases more than 30,000 of the world’s best films, including award-winning documentaries, rare and hard-to-find titles, film festival favorites, indie and classic films, and world cinema with collections from Kino Lorber, Music Box Films, Samuel Goldwyn, The Orchard, The Great Courses, PBS and thousands of independent filmmakers.

With the motto of “thoughtful entertainment,” Kanopy provides FCPL customers with access to films of unique social and cultural value; films that are often difficult or impossible to access elsewhere, and programming that features diversity, with a wide array of foreign language films and films on race, and current affairs. The Kanopy collection includes indie hits like Hunt For the Wilderpeople and 2 Days in Paris, classic masterpieces like Aguirre, the Wrath of God and Seven Samurai, and award-winning documentaries like the 2017 Oscar®-nominated I Am Not Your Negro and Sundance Film Festival winner Mother of George.

Each customer has 10 play credits per month. One play credit allows viewing one video. Once the video is opened, it can be seen any number of times for a three-day period. Play credits renew automatically at the beginning of each month.

The Library also offers Kanopy Kids, which offers unlimited plays so your children can explore age appropriate, enriching, educational and entertaining films and TV program series without access to the rest of the content.

Kanopy is available only through the Library, and a Library card is required to access the service. Library cards are free and available at all branches. You must be present to sign up for a library card. All minors under age 13 must have a parent or legal guardian sign to receive a Library card. Anyone is eligible for a Library card, including newborn babies.

“The Library wants to meet your needs for finding educational and entertaining resources. Kanopy allows us to offer even more of those resources to everyone living in Fresno County,” says County Librarian Raman Bath.
