

Rocky Vang
(559) 970-1135

Press Release

For Immediate Release
October 26, 2020

Fresno County Public Library Opens Seven Branches as Voting Centers for 2020 Election

The Fresno County Public Library will open seven of its branches to be used for in-person voting centers for the 2020 election. The voting centers will open on Saturday, October 31st through Election Day, Tuesday, November 3rd. These local voting centers will be open to voters who need assistance, want to vote on an accessible tablet, need to obtain a replacement ballot, need language assistance, need to register and vote in person, or any other reason.

The seven libraries used as voting centers are:

- Bear Mountain Library, 30733 East Kings Canyon Road, Squaw Valley
- Betty Rodriguez Regional Library, 3040 N Cedar Avenue, Fresno
- Fowler Library, 306 S. 7th Street, Fowler
- Mendota Library, 1246 Belmont Avenue, Mendota
- Orange Cove Library, 815 Park Blvd, Orange Cove
- Sunnyside Regional Library, 5566 E Kings Canyon Road, Fresno
- Woodward Park Regional Library, 944 E Perrin Avenue, Fresno

All library operations will be put on hold, at these locations, during the election. The libraries will resume curbside pickup service after the election is over. Please observe social distancing when visiting our voting centers.

For more information about Library programs or services at any of our 36 locations throughout the County, please visit us at www.fresnolibrary.org or call (559) 600-READ (7323).

####