FRESNO COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY ANNOUNCES GROUNDBREAKINGS FOR NEW CLOVIS AND REEDLEY LIBRARIES

FRESNO COUNTY, CA – The Fresno County Public Library is proud to announce the upcoming groundbreaking ceremonies for the new Clovis Regional Library and the new Reedley Library. These events mark a historic milestone for the County of Fresno, as they are the first design-build projects undertaken by the County. Harris Construction will lead the construction of both facilities.

The Clovis Regional Library Groundbreaking Ceremony will be held on Wednesday, August 27, 2025, at 11:00 a.m. at 755 3rd Street, Clovis, located behind the Clovis Senior Activity Center.

The Reedley Library Groundbreaking Ceremony will be held on Thursday, August 28, 2025, at 11:00 a.m. at 1813 11th Street, Reedley, along the Reedley Rail-Trail.

These new libraries are made possible through Fresno County Public Library Measure B funds, the Friends of the Clovis Library, the Friends of the Reedley Library, and the generosity of the community.

"These new libraries are investments in the future of our communities," said Sally Gomez, County Librarian and Director of the Fresno County Public Library. "These projects represent years of vision, planning, and community support, and they will provide opportunities for the community to connect, learn, and be inspired for generations to come."

These events are open to the public, and all are encouraged to attend and share in the celebration.
