FRESNO COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY INTRODUCES THREE NEW LIBRARY CARD DESIGNS

Fresno County, CA – For the first time, residents signing up for or replacing a Fresno County Public Library card can choose from four different designs.

Now available at all 33 Fresno County Public Library locations, the new collection includes the Sierra Nevada Mountainscape card, the San Joaquin Valley card, and the Children's California Quail card. Designed in-house by the Fresno County Public Library, the collection was created to inspire more residents to sign up for a card and explore everything their local library has to offer. The Library's traditional blue card will remain available, giving cardholders a choice of four designs.

"A library card is one of the most valuable free resources available to our community," said Sally Gomez, Director and County Librarian. "We hope these new designs encourage more residents to visit their local library, sign up for a card, and take advantage of everything the Library has to offer."

A Fresno County Public Library card provides free access to books, eBooks, audiobooks, public computers, Wi-Fi, online learning tools, research databases, and hundreds of free programs and events for all ages. Whether someone is looking for their next great read, helping a child develop a love of reading, building new skills, or finding a welcoming place to learn, a library card opens the door to opportunities to connect, grow, and be inspired.

The new library card designs are available to new and existing cardholders while supplies last. Residents may sign up for a new library card or replace an existing one by visiting any Fresno County Public Library location.
